

ZZZZ299 - Checking of the local coordinate systems

Summarized:

The two modelizations of this test are only used to validate the emission of the alarm `UTILITAI_4` which specifies that the local coordinate systems between the different ones meshes from the mesh are not compatible in the case as of beams or of shells (shells 3D, DKT,...) for the computation of certain options to the nodes.

This documentation is voluntarily brief.